Program Narrative

WHO:

The Vermont Migrant Education Program serves children and youth (ages 0 – 21) whose families move from one school district to another to obtain temporary or seasonal work in agriculture or logging. There are no income guidelines used to determine eligibility.

WHAT:

The Program works with parents and teachers to provide free educational support to help students transition into their new schools. Support to schools and families may include:

- Instructional support
- Free books
- School and home coordination
- On-going school contact
- Pre school support
- Agency referral and coordination
- Summer support services
- Home visits
- Literacy based activities for families in their homes

HOW:

Recruitment Specialists contact schools, farms, agencies, and businesses to locate families whose children may be eligible for program services. Visits are then arranged to discuss the program and determine eligibility. To refer students please contact us at the above address.
